Statistics 99r – Fall 2026

Schedule and Guidelines

Stat 99r, Fall 2026

September 4, 2026

Calendar of Events

- Today: Organizational meeting
  - Overview of thesis process and deliverables, Q&A
- October 2: Literature reviews and reference management
- Remaining meetings: Introductory presentations
  - Four presentations per meetings ~ 10-15 minutes + 2-5 minutes for questions
  - Review/background, data, and main questions/challenges

Goals and Expectations

- Course credit for thesis work
- Student Presentations
  - Provide opportunity to practice organizing and presenting your research
  - Feedback from classmates is extremely helpful → attendance is expected
- "Assignments"
  - Thesis proposal, Due October 1 by 11:59 PM
    - Submit through Stat 99r Canvas site
  - Thesis, Due March 26* by 5:00 PM

*For joint concentrators, due date is earlier of Stats and other concentration

Take away for today

- Thesis proposal requires
  1. Advisor(s)
     i. Required to have an advisor in Statistics
        a) Can be waived in certain cases, check with Alex
  2. Project
     i. Background and Main questions
  3. Data (if applicable)
  4. Timeline for projects

$$1 \leftrightarrow 2 \rightarrow 3,4$$

Focus on finalizing and advisor and research area